Now that brains and brawns have united forces, the next step in Senku's plan to unravel the mystery behind the green light that once petrified humanity is to go to the other side of the Earth and investigate its origin. However, to achieve this, Senku must first build a ship.

With the help of Tsukasa Shishio's former underlings, the base of the ship is rapidly assembled, but there is one missing piece: a skilled captain. During their search, Senku and his crew come across a petrified Ryuusui Nanami—the heir of the biggest maritime conglomerate, known for his vast knowledge of sailboats but unpleasant personality. Despite this, Senku takes the risk and revives Ryuusui.

Ryuusui, upon realizing there are no ownership rights in this new civilization, is excited at the prospect of claiming everything for himself. But before he agrees to play a crucial part in their upcoming journey and command the vessel through the restless seas, he and Senku must find the king of fuels to power the ship—oil.
