

Gakuen Babysitters

School Babysitters

Score: 7.9

Rank: #829

After losing both parents in a fatal plane crash, teenager Ryuichi Kashima must adjust to his new life as the guardian of his younger brother Kotarou. Although Ryuichi is able to maintain a friendly and kindhearted demeanor, Kotarou is a reserved toddler still too young to understand the reality of the situation. At their parents' funeral, they are approached by Youko Morinomiya, the stern chairman of an elite academy, who decides to take them under her care.

However, there is one condition Ryuichi must fulfill in exchange for a roof over their heads and enrolment in the school—he must become the school's babysitter. In an effort to support the female teachers at the academy, a babysitter's club was established to look after their infant children; unfortunately, the club is severely short-staffed, so now not only is Ryuichi responsible for his little brother, but also a handful of toddlers who possess dynamic personalities.
